

Organizers::

- Central European Research Institute of Søren Kierkegaard SK (CERI-SK)
- Department of General and Applied Ethics, Faculty of Arts, Constantine the Philosopher University in Nitra, SR
- Kierkegaard Circle, Trinity College, Univ. of Toronto, CA

Collaborating Partners::

- Central European Research Institute Soeren Kierkegaard Ljubljana, SI
- Department of Philosophy, Faculty of Science, Humanities, and Education, Technical University of Liberec, CR

UNIVERZITA
KONŠTANTÍNA
FILOZOFA FILOZOFICKÁ
V NITRE FAKULTA

3rd. International

Scientific

Conference::

::Kierkegaard in a Central European Context

Constantine the Philosopher University, Nitra, Slovakia::

::February 20-22, 2018

info :: www.ceri.sk

We start on 20.2.2018 at 14.00 in the room no. 107, Slančíkova ul. Nitra.

Papers to deal with one of the following areas::

- How Kierkegaard's thought might be relevant with respect to health, education, economics, politics, mass media or social and cultural engagements (art, music, etc)
- Kierkegaard in conversation with a Central European thinker
- Critiquing Kierkegaard from a Central European perspective.
- Texts favored, interpreted or misinterpreted.
- Kierkegaardian concepts: censure, incognito, comic, madness, armed neutrality

Scientific Conference Committee::

Prof. Abraham H. Khan, Ph.D. (CA), prof. Dr. María J. Binetti (AR), Prof. ThDr. Ján Liguš, Ph.D. (CZ), prof. PaedDr. ThDr. Roman Králik, Th. D. (CZ/SK), prof. PhDr. Dalimír Hajko, DrSc. (SK), prof. PhDr. Cyril Diatka, CSc., Primož Repar, PhD. (SI), MTh. Václav Umlauf, Ph.D. (CZ), doc. PhDr. Michal Valčo, PhD. (SK), doc. PhDr. PaedDr. Peter Kondrla, PhD. (SK), doc. Martin Štúr, PhD. (SK)

